OFA Fiscal Note

State Impact: None

Municipal Impact:

Municipalities	Effect	FY 11 $	FY 12 $
Various Municipalities	Grand List Loss	Minimal	Minimal

Explanation

The bill clarifies that the existing motor vehicle property tax exemption to which service members are entitled applies to a vehicle whether owned solely by the service member or jointly with a spouse. This results in a grand list loss which is anticipated to be minimal as it codifies current practice for the majority of municipalities in the state.

The Out Years

The annualized ongoing fiscal impact identified above would continue into the future subject to inflation.

OLR Bill AnalysissSB 212AN ACT CLARIFYING THAT THE MOTOR VEHICLE TAX EXEMPTION FOR MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES APPLIES TO VEHICLES JOINTLY OWNED WITH A SPOUSE.SUMMARY:

This bill specifies that the existing motor vehicle property tax exemption for members of the armed forces applies to a vehicle whether owned solely by a service member or jointly with his or her spouse.

By law, service members are entitled to a property tax exemption for one motor vehicle, garaged inside or outside of Connecticut, belonging to, leased by, or held in trust for them. Existing law outlines the procedure for filing the property tax claim.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon passage and applicable to assessment years commencing on or after October 1, 2009.
